What Puzzles Office Holders.

It's always hard for a man holding office to realize that the place used to be run—without help and that it's going to be again.

A Comforting Reflection.

It is some slight comfort to reflect that the average congressman gets part of his punishment in this world by having to entertain folks from the other side of the Atlantic.

FORMER NORWICH BOXER LOCATES IN WATERBURY

Jimmy Nelson Becomes Physical Instructor in Brass City Police Department.

Jimmy Nelson, formerly of Norwich, has been engaged as physical instructor for the Waterbury police department.

A quarter century ago Jimmy Nelson's headquarters were in New London and Norwich and he was the cleverest lightweight in the boxing game, and did not hesitate to take on bouts with welterweights in the prize ring. He has since the boxing game as a kid in the Brooklyn copper shops from which Jack Dempsey, Jack Mc-Auliffe and other top liners were graduated. For years he was the sparring partner of McAuliffe and his business manager.

Jimmy Nelson left the boxing game long ago and made a career of physical culture until he became a recognized authority, and his treatment has been given to many leading citizens, including three governors of Connecticut.

COURT SACHEM HELD QUARTERLY MEETING

Received Six Applications For Membership on Thursday Evening.

The semi-monthly meeting of Court Sachem, No. 94, Foresters of America, was held in Foresters' hall, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, with Chief Harper Lewis A. Andrews, presiding. This being the first quarterly meeting for the year 1916, the attendance was large and the interest of the members was manifested by the manner in which the various reports of the officers were received, and especially when the applications of six new members were made members of this growing court of Foresters were read by the recording secretary.

A goodly number went home after the meeting with the intention of bringing in the name of a friend for admission into the court at the first meeting in April and everything points to a very busy spring season for the degree team.

The regular routine business was transacted.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. Erastus R. Tuttle.

At 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon the funeral of Hulda Back, widow of Erastus R. Tuttle, took place from her late residence on River avenue, with Rev. Albert R. Blinn, officiating. The quarante of the Spiritual academy, consisting of Mrs. Charles Twist, Mrs.
Baker, William F. Bogue and O. E. Blackstone, sang two hymns.
Mrs. Charles Twist rendered Perfect Day. The bearers were John Hagberg, Andrew Hagberg, Frank Tuttle and Bohannon. There were many handsome floral tributes. Burial was in Poquetunk cemetery and Rev. Mr.
Blinn read a committal service at the grave.

Undertakers Church & Allen were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. R. F. Warner.

Funeral services for Emma A. Craw, widow of R. F. Warner, were held Wednesday evening at the home of her son-in-law, John Lyman, of East Great Plain, with relatives and friends attending. Rev. George H. Bogue, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated, and there were beautiful flowers covering the casket.

The body was sent to Norwalk Thursday morning for burial in the family plot. Relatives accompanied the body.

Undertakers Henry Allen & Son had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Michael Roberti.

The funeral of Maria Negashanti, widow of Michael Roberti, took place from her late home, No. 21 West Thames street, Wednesday morning.
Rev. Peter Cuny officiated at the mass in St. Patrick's church, and at the close Mrs. F. L. Farrell rendered two hymns.
The bearers were Jeremiah and Frank Ferri and Casare Conti and Mazara Paradise. Included in the attendance were relatives from New London, Westerly and other places. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Undertakers Shea & Burke had charge of the funeral.

Michael Roberti was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Negashanti and was born in Italy 48 years ago. She was united in marriage with Michael Roberti, who died in 1901. The deceased leaves her mother in Italy and three daughters in this city, Misses Mary and Amelia Roberti and Mrs. Frank Colucci of 21 West Thames street.
Mrs. Roberti died on March 14 after an illness of six months.
